SportsPower International (SPI) is a 501(C)(3) nonprofit, tax exempt organization based in Baltimore, Maryland. SportsPower utilizes the powerful platform offered to NBA players and professional athletes. All contributions made to SPI are tax deductible

Mission: To change the lives of people who are hurting, encouraging people to make right choices in life, and bringing a message of hope to everyone across the world. We accomplish this goal by conducting televised basketball games, camps, clinics, school assemblies, urban outreaches, and visiting orphanages. We utilize NBA players' personal stories of how they have handled success as well as overcoming adversity in their lives emphasizing character, leadership, responsibility, and faith.

Sponsors are needed to help cover the costs of player travel and lodging, food, equipment rental, media and incentives, etc. Individual sponsorship packages are outlined separately. Please review the packages offered and complete the information below:
