

“Why all the killing?”

LUNCHEON Downtown Baltimore CBMC Presents Jik Yousefi, President Carefree Industries

Jik will discuss his experience in business, with Islam, the Quran and his pursuit of the American Dream. He will also share his personal faith journey.

Christian Business Men's Connection

Jik Yousefi is President of Carefree Industries located in Baltimore, Linthicum, and Frederick, Maryland. Jik started this business in 1987. The company is a commercial manufacturer of custom cabinets for offices, hospitals and banks, and a residential distributor of Wellborn cabinets. The firm has 46 employees. Jik attended Towson State University.

Jik was born and raised in Tehran, Iran as a Muslim and then came to the United States at age 19 to pursue the American Dream. Jik's desire was to be an aeronautical engineer and initially, he attended Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, however, love compelled him to move to Maryland, where he married his wife Michelle. They have 8 children, and they reside in Harford County, Maryland.

Jik is a frequent speaker in different Churches and conferences, speaking mostly on the subject of the role of Islam and Christianity in shaping the world and the culture.

Jik teaches several Sundays every month at a Farsi speaking Iranian Church and he serves on the board of directors of several of Para Church organizations. His Ministry, business and the family life of 8 children keep Jik very busy.

Come and bring a friend!
