

Uncertainty in Everything??

Uncertainty in life affects all of us. Through the uncertainty in a rare life-threatening liver disease, life as a foster parent, and the financial markets, Sam will share how he finds peace in it all.

LUNCHEON

Downtown Baltimore CBMC

Presents

Sam Erdman, Private Wealth Advisor, CFP[®], CKA[®]
Ronald Blue & Co.

Financial, Estate, Tax, Investment & Philanthropic Counsel

Sam Erdman serves his clients out of the branch office in Baltimore, Maryland. Sam is passionate about helping his clients implement biblically-based principles in their lives. Prior to joining Ronald Blue & Co. in 2006, Sam worked as an accountant for an international audit, tax, and consulting firm. He graduated from James Madison University with a BBA in Accounting, holds both Certified Financial Planner[®] and Certified Kingdom Advisor[®] designations, and is a member of the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors (NAPFA).

Sam began his search for meaning in middle school where he was invited to join a local church youth group. Then at age 12, he was diagnosed with a terminal liver disease but was saved through a miraculous liver transplant. After college he married his childhood sweetheart Leigh and started a family. After the birth of their first two children they planned to adopt but they learned of the great need for foster parents.

Sam is committed to serving his community well and has held leadership roles with numerous charitable organizations including the Young Life Regional & Urban Boards, Coracle Baltimore, and Co-Chair of the Johns Hopkins Children's Center Horse Show and Gala. Sam is also active in his local church's discipleship and marriage ministries.

Sam and his wife, Leigh, live in Cockeysville, Maryland. They have been actively involved in foster care through which they adopted two of their four children.

Come and bring a friend!
